Tower Choir Prepares Program For Assembly and Annual Tour

Choir members are hard at work these days preparing for the annual choir tour and for a College assembly to be held on February 4. The tour this year will extend from Monday, January 24, through Wednesday, January 26.

Monday, January 24, the choir will visit the King City high school. At Maysville they will eat lunch and then sing at the high school. They will sing at Gallatin, and go to Bethany where they will spend the night. They will give an evening performance at the Pattonsburg high school.

Tuesday morning they will sing at Bethany high school, after which they will go to Albany for lunch. They will sing at the high school there at 1 p. m. After giving a performance at Stanberry they will return to Maryville. Wednesday morning they will travel to St. Joseph to sing at the St. Joseph Junior College.

The program, which will be the same for both the tour and the College assembly, is varied and includes both sacred and secular numbers. The sacred group will be highlighted by one of J. S. Bach's motets, "Praise Ye the Lord."

Among the lighter numbers, the choir will sing a concert version of the "Student Prince" by Sigmund Romberg. The soloists for this number will include Frances Howell, soprano; Donald Herren, tenor; and Max Bartram, bass. The choir will present this number in an informal manner to produce the desired effect.

Between choral groups, the opera group will offer the comic opera, "The Telephone," by the contemporary American composer, Gian Carlo Menotti. In the production, Jack Hill will play the part of Ben, with Barbara Stuber playing the part of Lucy.

Holiday Accidents Take Five Lives

Three automobile accidents and two airplane accidents brought death to one College student and four former students over the holiday season.

Neal Boatright, 19 year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Boatright, Route 2, Rushville, was killed on December 23, when his car crashed into a tree one mile west of Atchison, Kansas, on U. S. Highway 59.

He was traveling alone at the time of the accident. He apparently lost control of the car while passing another eastbound vehicle. Besides his parents, he is survived by a sister, Loretta.

Neal, a fine arts major, was a member of the Phi Sigma Epsilon fraternity and the Art Club. He was graduated from Atchison High School in 1953.

Funeral services were held on Sunday, December 26, at the Trinity Lutheran Church in Atchison, Kansas. Those attending from the College included members of the Phi Sigma Epsilon fraternity; Dr. Frank Grube, fraternity sponsor; Dr. J. W. Jones, president; Everett W. Brown, director of field services; and Miss Olive DeLuce, head of the art department.

May Frances Lewis, 23, kindergarten teacher in North Kansas City School, a 1953 graduate of the college, was killed on December 23, when the car she was driving

Distinguished Guest To Dedicate Armory

The Honorable Harry S. Truman

The Honorable Harry S. Truman, the thirty-second President of the United States, will dedicate the new National Guard Armory recently completed on College Memorial Drive. The ceremony will be held Sunday, February 6.

Missouri's distinguished citizen, of Independence, has a long and honorable record of service to his country. In 1922 he was elected Judge of the County Court of the Eastern District of Kansas City. In 1924 he was elected Presiding Judge of the County Court of Jackson County. In 1934 he was elected United States Senator. In 1944 he was elected Vice-President of the United States, and in 1945, on the twelfth day of April, he was sworn in as President of the United States, after the death of Franklin Delano Roosevelt. In 1948 he was elected by the people of the United States to return to Washington as their President for four more years.

As President of the United States, Mr. Truman was the chief executive officer of the Government, the leader of his party, a legislator—in that he had the responsibility of signing bills or vetoing them, the social head of the state, and the Commander in Chief of the armed forces.

Mr. Truman's experience in the armed forces began in 1905, when he became a member of the National Guard Battery of Light Field Artillery, Battery B, 1st Battalion Missouri Field Artillery.

During World War I, he helped to organize Battery B in Kansas City and Battery C in Independence into the 129th F. A. 35th Division. Mr. Truman became a 1st Lieutenant, was examined for promotion, and was sent overseas with an advance regimental detail. He was made Captain of the 129th and commanded the regiment he had helped to organize, serving on the front for months before firing ceased Nov. 11, 1918.

Mr. Truman's interest in the National Guard continued through the years. In an impressive ceremony depicting National Guard uniforms throughout history, held at Mt. Vernon, February, 1953, his dream of a National Guard commemoration stamp became a reality, the first commemorating stamp to be authorized by one administration and distributed by another.

A further indication of his ceaseless interest in the welfare of the National Guard is the beautiful new Armory building on the campus. His untiring efforts and work were responsible for the building program needed to complete the Armory.

Though Mr. Truman, with his wide and thorough knowledge of history, recognizes the value of military strength to a nation, he is deeply religious and believes that the most important business of this nation—or any nation—is the training of children, giving them another kind of strength through the teaching of a proper moral code by which to live and giving them another kind of support through the provision of a proper environment in which to live.

While President, he worked constantly toward his goal of peace for all the world. History will show him to be "one of our greatest presidents. His world decisions, faced with directness, will write him high in the records," believe many statesmen.

National Guard Has Important Military History

By Col. Edward V. Condon

The National Guard has the longest continuous military history of any military organization in the United States. Its origin goes back to the early 17th century, when bands of "citizens soldiers" were formed to protect their settlements. The oldest regiment is the 182nd Infantry of the Massachusetts National Guard, originally organized as a Middlesex County militia regiment in 1636. The term "minute men" was first applied to the Massachusetts National Guardsmen, members of the Middlesex Regiment, who met the Redcoats at Lexington and Concord. Another historic regiment is the 176th Infantry of the Virginia National Guard, descendant of the Charles City, Henric County Regiment, organized in 1652.

The National Guard was named after the "Garde Nationale" of France in honor of Lafayette who was one of its commanders. The name was first adopted by the New York Militia on the occasion of a visit by Lafayette to the city in September, 1824.

Five presidents—George Washington, Andrew Jackson, Abraham Lincoln, Chester Arthur, and Harry S. Truman—have served in the Guard.

The College has always played a very important part in the National Guard, furnishing hundreds of men for officers and non-commissioned ranks from 1922 to the present time.

Battery C 128th Field Artillery was organized in Maryville largely through the efforts of Eugene Maynor, head coach of the College in 1922 and the first captain of Battery C, and Kyle Phares, First Lieutenant of the Battery, and later Commanding Officer.

Among the officer personnel of Battery C from 1922 to November 25, 1940, were Eugene Maynor, Kyle Phares, Dr. R. G. Garten, Ralph Palmer, Roy Mayes, Edgar Messmer, H. F. Lawrence, Vodre Willoughby, Harold O'Banion, Carl Tarpley, Steve Donahue, Sam England, William R. Bills, Ray Lambert Miller, W. P. Peetom, Bob Perkins, Roland Russell, Guy Russell Shelton, V. E. Bird, Jr., Johnnie Davis, and Edward Condon.

Col. Condon commanded the Battery from March 26, 1926, until November 18, 1940, being promoted to Major at that time.

Of the 106 men who were inducted into federal service with the Battery over 80 per cent were later ordered to officer candidate schools and commissioned.

Certain procedures put into effect by President Uel W. Lamkin and Director of Athletics Earl "Lefty" Davis resulted in increased interest among college students in the National Guard.

As early as 1946, correspondence was being conducted between Dr. J. W. Jones and the Chief of the National Guard Bureau, Washington, D. C., for location of a national Guard unit on the campus of the College.

The result is a modern armory, 136 feet 4 inches by 103 feet 4 inches, including 6 classrooms, an indoor rifle range, 2 supply rooms, dressing rooms, 6 offices, and a drill room 90 feet by 61 feet.

Why Should I Believe?

Why should I believe?

At some time in our lives all of us will be faced with problems, the solutions of which are beyond the reach of human beings.

Advice from people whose intelligent opinions we value can be taken into consideration.

But the final decision is ours and must be made by us.

What more comfort can we find then, than the knowledge that "with God all things are possible"?

Knowing that we are blessed with this privilege of seeking and obtaining help from God in our times of need gives us the answer to the question—

Why should I believe?

They're Talking About . . .

The return from two weeks of holiday festivities was rather abrupt. After feasting and resting a considerable part of the time, it was rather hard to get back into the old groove again . . . New clothes were displayed by many . . . gifts which were happily received, no doubt . . . Also, rough complexions from overstuffing of candies and nuts showed evidence of a much celebrated two weeks. Blood-shot eyes from late hours and the frantic first.

Now that the first of the year has arrived, conference play takes over . . . Bearcats lost to Kirksville in their first outing. A tough loss as they led throughout most of the game . . . We'll avenge that loss when Kirksville comes here to 'Ol State February 1.

Pre-registration week . . . A look into the second semester was glimpsed when students met with their advisers to make out their new schedules. Of course, the things to be concerned about at the present are the final exams which are staring us in the face . . . The two weeks which separate the end of our vacation and the new semester are like the calm before the storm . . . Those finals just can't be overlooked. Hope you aren't like the following guy who really "goofed up":

He burned the midnight oil
The night before exams;
He slept but very little;
He crammed, and crammed, and crammed.

But when the tests were over
He knew he'd sealed his fate.
He'd studied hard the night before,
But that was too darn late!

Independent Club

The Christmas carolling and party was made a success under the direction of Ruth Rethemeyer, Charlene Ashley, Donna Ruoff, and Marjorie Cockayne. Charlene Ashley, Louise Novinger, Veldeva Cochran, and Joyce Brown participated in the program. Donna Ruoff led the group in games and songs. Refreshments were served.

Dr. Charles E. Koerble, the new Independent Club sponsor, was present at the January 4 meeting. Mr. Donald Sandford is the other sponsor.

The National Convention of the Independent Clubs of the United States will be held at Colorado A & M, Fort Collins, Colorado, this year in April. It is hoped that the club will be represented at this convention as it has been represented the past two years at Indiana and New York. Fred Whitford has been checking into the possibilities.

Intermediate Club

The Intermediate Club met in the Gold Room of the Union, January 5. A talk was given by Mrs.

Ruby V. Wispe, concerning speech correction.

New members added to some committees were as follows: membership committee, Audra Lawrence; social committee, Gwen Grove, Dorothy Eilers; financial committee, Margaret Robinson, Naomi Shipley, Betty Schrader; public relations, Bettebelle Pitts, Dorothy Snook, Lillian Beggs.

Alpha Sigmas

Only the memory of Christmas is left, but among trophies brought back are diamonds sported by Colleen Beggs, Doris McKinley, Carole Kay Trotter, and Coletta Green.

Members on the committees choosing various candidates for awards are Evelyn Hillman, Kaye Ferguson, Bettebelle Pitts, Fran Cross, Lorraine Mau, Carole Kay Trotter, Betty Nazarine, and Nancy Kariger.

Pledges, beware! The dread week is approaching and will be climaxed by Hell night, February 11. Doris McKinley, Betty Nazarine, and Pat Cooper are the hangmen.

Sigma Sigmas

Tri Sigmas' regular meeting was held in the chapter room January 4. The girls put their vacation time to good use by selling magazines as a money making activity for the sorority. Both pledges and actives entered the project with enthusiasm as the results have shown.

January 14 has been set as mother-daughter day in the sorority. So don't be surprised if you see actives standing for pledges. Who knows what will happen?

Pledge initiation date has been set. It will not be long now until there will be a week of white pinafores and then a whole chapter room full of new members.

Pledges are planning a sock hop for February 4. Now is the time to begin knitting a pair of argyles, girls. Or is it too late a notice?

A. C. E.

Members of ACE held the annual Christmas party on December 15 in the kindergarten room at Horace Mann. Janet McClard, social chairman, had an entertaining program. Shirley Woodring sang a solo and the group sang traditional Christmas carols. The novel "grab-bag" was followed by "The Small One" read by Miss Chloe Millikan.

On January 5, the ACE met with "The Teacher As a Factor in Learning" as the theme for the evening. A panel discussion given by Janet Mills, Elizabeth Tokuda, and Barbara Tyer outlined personality, appearance, outside interests, helping to better the P. T. A., and parent teacher conference as factors a good teacher must have help with.

S. C. A.

The last meeting of the Student Christian Association for the first semester of this year met Wednesday, January 5, in the Chapel in the Union.

John Fred Whitford read greetings from the Young Men's Christian Association of the University of Missouri. A report was given of the Centennial offering to be sent to the regional office. According to the report, one-fifth of the goal has been reached. Anna Roberts was appointed to the Student Religious Council.

A short film, "The Grand Design", telling about the work of the United Nations, was shown.

The United Nations was briefly explained by Herbert Anderson. Terry Bullock told of his trip to New York City last year and what he observed in watching the United Nations at work.

Phi Sig Review

Now that the semester is just the same as over, the frat is anxious to get started on the spring term. High points of the fall term included Homecoming, the Christmas dance, the regional Phi Sig Conclave, intramural sports and varsity football and basketball games. With finals next week, comes the completion of a successful semester.

The initiation of pledges was held last Saturday evening—and Sunday morning! The initiation was not only fun for the actives, but for the pledges who also enjoyed it. Some very constructive problems were given them to do. Gordon Robertson will probably drop music and become an interior decorator in the near future.

The fraternity attended church as a group Sunday morning to complete this semester's pledging.

The frat has been holding as many Friday evening dances as possible throughout this semester. One was held last Friday evening at the chapter room. These dances have been very successful and will continue throughout the spring term.

Many Phi Sigs attended the services held for frat brother, Neal Boatright. Deepest sympathy is extended to his friends and relatives.

Delta Sigmas

Finals... and pledge tests all in one week... cruel, cruel, world. Something must be done to compensate for this tragedy. No sooner said than done... come Friday night the Deltas and dates, dressed in those "crazy" square dance clothes, will participate in the activities connected with the Hillbilly Jamboree.

Arrangements for this initial Delta Jamboree are under the direction of Evelyn Finter. Working with her are Marcia Woodcock, Helen Gillis, Evelyn Matthews, and Sandra Craven on decorations; Marcia Ely, Shirley Helts, Sharon Olson, Mary Griffin, Shirley Ellyson, and Carol Walker, planning the program; and Lauretta Taylor, Ellen Hedstrom, Sue Taylor, and Lavonne VanMeter, refreshments.

Miss Elizabeth Daniel, Delta Sigma Epsilon National President, will be the guest of the sorority Saturday and Sunday. Special conferences, a coke party, and dinner will highlight her visit.

Dig that sweet, sweet music oozing through the cracks and crevices of the chapter room... who knows we may have a composer in our midst... to say nothing of the possibility of another Rosemary Clooney... the truth... just the pledges singing out on the sorority songs they composed.

William Jewell Kneels Again Before Bearcats

Coach Gregory's Bearcats, holding to a record of no defeats at the hands of the William Jewell Cardinals in five years, dropped the Liberty squad 81-70 Saturday night.

The Bearcat victory marked the second Cardinal loss in thirteen games.

Daryl Flint, Bearcat sharpshooter, posted a high game total of 27 points on eight buckets and nine gratis scores.

Flint and Ono Monachino's skillful rebounding gave the Green and White control of the ball most of the time.

Bill Baldwin, Bearcat guard, shot over the heads of the Card defense to take second place Maryville honors with 17 points.

Thumbnail sketches of Coach Bob Gregory's Bearcat squad are as follows:

Bill Baldwin—Senior, 6 ft 0, 175 lbs., Maryville. A two year letterman who supplied the 1953-54 team with fine play direction. Scored 211 points and contributed a great performance in the 'Cats winning endeavor. Graduates in June with a double major in Math and P. E.

Lex Creamer—Junior, 5 ft. 11 in. 150 lbs., Union Star. Came along fast at mid-season last year and broke into the starting line-up during January. Probably slickest ballhandler on club and a better than average shot.

So far this season Lex has a 8.43 point MIAA per game average.

Daryl Flint—Junior, 6 ft. 4 in. 190 lbs., Martinsville. An amazing performer. Scored 410 points for a 20.5 points per game average in last season's play. Selected to All-Conference team as a unanimous choice and also selected as co-captain of the All-Star team. His 38 points against Cape Girardeau and total season points established new school records. Shoots hooks, left or right, one and two hand set shots and a jump shot with equal ability. Another such season as he enjoyed last year will send him into national prominence. Has one more season of eligibility after this year.

Although Daryl has been out two games because of sickness, he leads the Bearcats in MIAA scoring honors with a 14.6 average.

John Garner—Senior, 6 ft. 2 in., 180 lbs., Winston. Three year letterman. Scored 91 points last season. Graduates in June and faces two years in USMC before embarking on a teaching career.

Dick Phillips—Junior, 6 ft., 170 lbs., Boulder, Colo. A transfer student from Colorado A & M. Attended high school in Boulder. Played freshman ball at A. & M. He is a great hustler, and a good driver.

Dick's speed and fancy ball handling have been a valuable asset to the squad. MIAA point average stands at 8.0.

Attendance at home basketball games has been poor. You see the same loyal group at every game, never any new faces. It appears that no one seems to care anything about sports on this campus. Too many people still think they are in high school and forget their loyalty should be with the college.

We have a good basketball team, and they deserve the support of every single person in the student body. It would also be nice if a few more of the faculty took a more active interest by attending the ball games.

The gym seats around 2,000 and hasn't been filled in three or four years. If you, the students and faculty, would get behind the team as you should, there would be standing room only at every home game.

I think it would be a grand gesture if the fraternities, sororities, and independents would make a special effort to have their members present at the games. How about it?

When the team is playing, it is not just the five men on the floor who are playing, it is our college, which includes every student. Each student is just as important as any player. Come on, let's get behind this basketball team of ours, win or lose.

Ono Monachino—Senior, 6 ft., 4 in., 200 lbs., Elba, N. Y. Strong rebounding three-year letterman who finished second in team scoring with 270 points last season. Will give Coach Bob Gregory a full 40 minutes of determined action throughout the season. Graduates in June with a double major in Math and P. E. Has two years of service to face before making use of degree.

Ono's MIAA scoring average is 12.2.

Logan McGinnis—Freshman, 6 ft. 2½ in., 205 lbs., Skidmore. Logan was an outstanding ball player while in school at Skidmore. For the past three years he has been in service, where he played basketball last season. He is a good rebounder and a driver.

Mike Hutcheon—Sophomore, 6 ft., 4 in., 180 lbs., Kansas City. Used only sparingly on last season's varsity but was a top performer on the "B" team that won 9 out of 10. Can be a capable replacement for Monachino.

Paul Clark—Sophomore, 5 ft., 7 in., 150 lbs., St. Joseph. Can be expected to play a lot of ball this season. Possesses a fine left hand punch shot and is a good driver. Top scorer on "B" team.

Bob Smith—Junior, 6 ft., 175 lbs., Maryville. Played on "B" team last season. Has good one-hand shot and tough on back board.

Jim Swaney—Senior, 6 ft., 170 lbs., Maryville. Lettered for the first time last season. Good ball handler and fine defensive player. In a reserve role last season scored 55 points. Graduates in June with a P. E. and Social Science major.

Weldon Dowden—Junior, 6 ft., 175 lbs., Maryville. A great jumper and lightning fast. Has tough time scoring but can drive with any player in conference. Scored 14 points after coming to the varsity from the "B" team.

M Club

Initiation and the annual "M" Club Dance were the topics for discussion at the meeting of January 5.

February 26 has been selected as the date for the dance.

Bearcats Lose Game

In the last 7 minutes, the Bearcats lost their MIAA opener at Kirksville January 4.

Although the Bearcats had the advantage in baskets, the Bulldogs took the lead in free throw points.

Man to man defense during the second half prevented the Bearcats' attempts to get set for inside shots.

Ono Monachino led the Bearcats scoring with 19 points, 8 baskets and 3 gratis shots.

"B" Team Review

By Vic Cromer

Under the hard coaching of Earl Bridgewater, this year's "B" team is beginning to show great possibilities for the future Bearcats of Northwest State. A good example of this was the game with Trenton Junior College. The "B" team won by the score of 67 to 34. Even though the "B" team has a 1 and -2 record, there are many more games to come. The running of this game has set the "B" team afire during practice. They are all working hard to become victorious in future games. The fellows of the "B" team seem always to play better when there is a larger audience than 10 or 20. So why don't you plan to get to the game a little earlier and help the future Bearcats along?

Intramural Hoopsters Prepare for Tournament

Now that the Christmas vacation is over, the Intramural teams are hard at work to improve their records or to keep them where they are. In the next three weeks, one before exams and two after exams, the teams will complete their three rounds in which all the teams are engaged. After the regular season is over a tournament consisting of the top eight teams will be played.

Sig Taus in the Blue League finished the season with a perfect 6-0 record. Next in line came the TKE white and the Sig Tau green team, both with only one defeat in six games.

For the last two rounds, the teams have been divided. This will provide the opportunity for a team to compete with every team in the League.

crashed into another car.

The accident occurred on U. S. Highway 52, a mile east of Highway 71, near Butler.

Also killed in the accident were Marion Matlock Lewis, 55, father of Miss Lewis; Francis Lewis, 21, brother of Miss Lewis; and Almas Paul J. Waska, El Reno, Oklahoma, driver of the other automobile.

Robert Shoemaker, 20, from Glidden, Iowa, of the U. S. Air Force was among nine airmen killed in an airplane accident on December 29.

Robert enlisted in the air force last August 30, after attending college here last year. His twentieth birthday was December 14, and he had just been home on Christmas furlough, visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Shoemaker, and a sister. He was killed on his way back to his air base in South Carolina when the air force plane in which he was riding crashed into the side of a mountain.

Mrs. Bryant King, 49, the former Miss Gladys McHenry, was killed in a car-truck collision on January 5. The accident occurred 8 miles north of Savannah when the car driven by Mrs. King skidded on the ice, and a truck smashed into her car broadside.

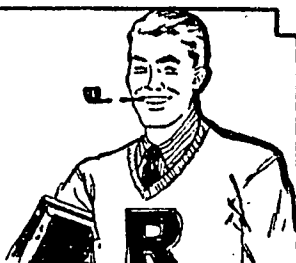

Mrs. King is survived by three sons who are all in the armed services. She is a former student of the College.

Lt. Rex Van Camp, 25, a Korean combat veteran and holder of the Distinguished Flying Cross, a former student of Horace Mann, was killed December 26, in a jet plane crash at Valdosta, Ga.
